

Mothers Wrath

My book is a memoir of my life story, though I have changed all names and some events for privacy reasons and also will not be using my real name as the Author. This book also contains graphic words and content, suitable for adult readers only. This story is about a mother who hated her children, who used her children and enjoyed hurting her children. Yes my mother, who I would refer to as Aunt Mary- Enna who would force us to break into houses, steal and lie. She would beat us almost daily. We were physically and mentally abused our whole childhood by her.
