

For Love or Not at All (Heart of Texas - Book Two) (Volume 2)

Having survived the long and difficult journey to Dodge City, Mabel Milton was ready to sell her cattle and enjoy life for a while. However, after a fatal shooting in the dance hall, she finds herself caught up in the fight to save a group of innocent men from the gallows. With the town baying for blood, can she work with Jesse Lockwood to perform a miracle and get them freed? And what about things at home? As decent grazing becomes harder and harder to find, winter looms and it promises to be the worst one yet. With things looking grim on the ranch, it seems that the only way she can stay in business is to team up with Jesse, much against her better judgment. Can they set aside their differences for long enough to beat the coming storms? For Love or Not at All is the second of five books in the exciting new historical romance series Heart of Texas. Follow the fortunes of Mabel Milton as the need to keep her business afloat leads her into doing business with Jesse Lockwood, possibly one of the most annoying men to ever walk the plains.
