

Nadar desnudas (Spanish Edition)

Sutil, lucida y compasiva . JM Coetzee- Premio Nobel de Literatura Sophie nunca se ha sentido tan protegida y feliz como en su amistad con Morgana. Estas jovenes, a quienes el destino reúne en el convulsionado Chile de principios de los 70, descubren que es mucho lo que comparten, pero que por sobre todo las hermana su sensibilidad por el arte y la poesia. Juntas forman un nucleo con codigos propios, que sienten indestructible. Tambien estan profundamente vinculadas por un mismo amor, Diego, el padre de Sophie. Sin embargo, la pasion fulminante entre el y Morgana traspasara la frontera de lo prohibido, quebrando el unico ambito de estabilidad de su hija. Casi treinta anos despues, los eventos del 11 de septiembre de 2001 remecen a una Sophie ya consagrada como artista plastica. A su mente regresa otro 11 de septiembre, ese que trunco la vida de su familia, de la cual ella nunca mas quiso saber. Ahora, por primera vez, se arriesgara a abrir un pequeno espacio a ese pasado que bloqueo en un intento por recuperar lo perdido.

ENGLISH DESCRIPTION: Subtle, lucid, and compassionate. JM Coetzee, Nobel Laureate Sophie has never felt as protected and happy as she does in her friendship to Morgana. Brought together by destiny in the convulsed Chile of the early 1970s, these young women are linked by their shared passions for art, poetry, and the love of Sophie's father, Diego. Almost thirty years later, the events of September 11th, 2001, take Sophie back to another September 11th the day she severed all ties to her family. Now, for the first time since that ill-fated day, Sophie will risk going back to her past in an attempt to regain what she lost.
